State Senator Lou Correa

Chair, Senate Banking and Financial Institutions Committee

Join Senator Lou Correa, representatives from the California Attorney General's Office, California Association of Realtors, data analytics firm Property Radar, housing counseling experts, borrower advocates, and mortgage servicers for an informational hearing on:

THE HOMEOWNERS BILL of RIGHTS

Is It Working?

Tuesday, October 1, 2013 ◆ 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
Senator Correa's District Office
2323 North Broadway ◆ Santa Ana, CA 92706

Among the questions they'll be asking:

- Are borrowers still getting the runaround when they try to negotiate loan modifications with their servicers?
- Are servicers still foreclosing on borrowers with whom they are actively engaged in loan modification discussions?
- Where can YOU get help, if your servicer won't talk to you?
- Is the Homeowner Bill of Rights preventing foreclosures, or just delaying them?
- Is the housing market on the way up, or on the way down?
- Can I purchase a foreclosure without fear of being sued?

This event is free and open to the public, homeowners are encouraged to attend. For more information or to RSVP, please call the District Office at (714) 558-4400.
